Reunion of St. Ursula's Alumnae

Lowell says: "What so rare as a day in June!" but the Ursula's Alumnae of Arcadia justly recognize that there is none more dazzling in beauty than when the golden orb, rising to its height of splendor, darts its rays against the many tinted foliages of the mountains encircling the spacious grounds of their Alma Mater; when young and old, from near and far come to the loving embrace of friend-ships fostered in their girlhood days. Apparently all nature seemed to an ticipate the arrival of these bright faced maidens and hoary crowned

Tuesday, October 19, the members of the Alumnae began to arrive for their three days jubilation. After participating in a wholesome lun-cheon, it was announced that an old time picnic was to take place at Shutin, thus enabling them to revisit Elephant Rock and the picturesque

Lake Killarney At 7:30 A. M. the guests were invited to the spacious auditorium to witness the select numbers prepared by the residing pupils. Notably on the program were a "Greeting to the Alumnae," a "Festive Dance," choice vocal and instrumental selections; "Estudientina," a costumed song and Spanish Dance by twenty-four young ladies, gave evidence of much drill and careful training; but the climax was reached when Miss Fern Lee Matthews, a post-graduate, impersonated the story of "Endymion" in a pantomimic dance.

After repairing to the "Old Dormiories" at the unaccustomed hour leep made no rappings at the heavy eyelids until the wee hours of morn.
The much-talked-of game of Basket Ball took place Wednesday morning. The goals were gaily trimmed in colors of the teams and each partaker in the game dispisyed her color. An enthusiastic crowd assembled at the court and rooted heartily. The yells resounded through the grounds as first one and then the other seemed successful. Finally, the "Diamonds" defeated the "Stars" with a score of

The afternoon was spent in exciting ames of "Five-hundred" and games of "Five-hundred" and "Euchre." Prizes were won by Misees M. Gummersbach, M. Lind, B. Flannigan, K. Keyes, Mesdames Ida Canty McGee and Frankie Motz Lanigan.

The Alumnae devoted the evening hours in entertaining with song, instrumental, recitations and dance, Miss FitzGerald of Houston, Texas, excelling in the Irish jig, while Mr. Hastings took the audience by his humorous recitation. Thursday being the patronal feast

High School Notes.

Last Friday the Junior class of the High School gave the play, "Gammer Gurton's Needle," which they drama-tized to suit their own needs from a synopsis of eighteen lines.

This play was, with the exception of "Ralph Rayster Dayster," the first English Comedy. The earliest edition of the play was printed in 1675, and the au norship is now definitely asthe au norship is now definitely assigned to William Stevenson, though for many years John Sill, Bishop of Bath, was believed to be the author.

On October 23, the Ironton High School Basket Ball team played Piedmont. Our boys played an excellent game, but due to lack of practice they were defeated. The score being 31 to 26 in favor of Piedmont. Net receipts were $8.50. We have an excellent team, and if the team received better patronage it could make a better showing.
